Last week we told you about the new "North Country Network" which has been formed by KSLU and WNTC in Potsdam. This linking brings three fine Potsdam shows to KSLU. They are:

1. "The Fred Adsit Show," heard Saturday evening from 11:00 p.m. to 11:55. Fred features the top popular bands of the country and gives out with much interesting information on these organizations. If you like the bands, you're sure to like the "Fred Adsit Show" on Saturday nights.

2. "Upbeat." This show is broadcast Tuesday at 9:05 p.m. and features jazz of the progressive school, which is sure to please many of the Larry cats. More of the same type of jazz can be heard Thursdays at 9:05 p.m.

3. "The Judy Reinhardt Show." Another female jazz d.j. is always good news, and Judy spins some great biscuits on her show.

While on the subject of jazz, don't forget our other programs in this vein. They are "The Jazz Scene" with Dave Powers at 9 p.m. on Fridays and the "Jazz Revue," heard on Wednesdays at 8:30 with Jean Freeman and Lois Thayer.
